TONI SCORSESE

I've heard rumor this existence may be a game Aliens/souls/whatever they are

– we are –

DECIDE to participate in this life

As it's been told we accept the grief and horror of our corporeal role here for the simple objective of the experience – or –

Karma to be tidied
we sign on for the misery and the lessons

The alternative is to exist in eternal bliss – part of an enlightened collective –

What are we IDIOTS?

Well | If it is a choice | I hope I remember the experience

I'd rather not elect this again/
Give me the ethereal | and fuck the game
