

ADDRESS UN—KNOWN

TONI SCORSESE

an I N E L E G A N T mind will eventually arrive at a solution but the exploration will be l o n g this mind never dashes the shortest distance circuitous twisted logic forestalls the destination as it p r o t r a c t s the expedition there accrues pit stops | points of interest | and ports while pines for harbor it's mode of travel a l a z y river to truncate the tour risks let slip a landmark and there is no treasure map for this odyssey terrain forks with hazardous bearings the target hiked not yet charted caution urges deferment although is extending the voyage nothing more than procrastination ?

wits suggest revisiting the itinerary to make it home at last but some journeys mustn't haste and others hadn't tarry crossroads leaven the ire of an I N E L E G A N T mind that doesn't trust the vehicle it captains
